† Traveling Troupe/Commedia Audition: If you are interested in auditioning for either Troupe, then please submit this registration form and the $35 audition fee (non-refundable). Traveling Troupe Auditions will be held on Monday, January 18th, 10-3, and Monday, February 15th, 10-3, location TBA. Commedia Troupe Auditions will be held on Saturday, January 16th, 4-9, and Saturday, February 13th, 4-9, location TBA. Please go to www.travelingplayers.org for details on auditioning for either Troupe. It is highly recommended that you simultaneously register for the High School Ensemble session(s) of your choice. If you are later selected for Traveling/Commedia Troupe, then we will transfer your deposit. The tuition for the five-week Commedia Troupe is $2900 or $2850*, and the seven-week Traveling Troupe is $4250 or $4200*, both Troupes include a $1000 non-refundable deposit; remainder is non-refundable after March 1.

Scholarships: Financial assistance is based on three factors: (1) financial need of the family, (2) talent and/or dedication of performer, and (3) needs of TPE's ensembles. For application information, please call 703-987-1712 or visit our website.

Methods of Payment: For each $500 deposit, $300 is non-refundable; for each $200 deposit, $100 is non-refundable; remainder is non-refundable after March 1.

Pay by check: A $500 deposit is due at the time of registration to be credited toward tuition. Tuition balance is due April 1 and must be paid by check. Credit card payments will not be accepted. For those registering after April 1, all fees are due upon registration. Returned check fee is $20. Please make checks payable to: Traveling Players Ensemble.

Pay by credit card: The full amount is due (not just the deposit) at the time of registration.

HEALTH STATEMENT, INDEMNITY, AND ASSUMPTION OF RISK

Definition of “TPE”: In this document, “TPE” means Traveling Players Ensemble, Inc, its officers, directors, employees and agents, including full and part-time staff, faculty and volunteers.

Activities and risks:

I understand that TPE has attempted to provide its participants with appropriate equipment and skilled staff for its programs. Nevertheless, the activities of the programs have risks, including certain risks which are inherent. Inherent risks are those which cannot be eliminated without destroying the unique character of the activities. The same elements that contribute to the unique character of these activities can cause loss or damage to the equipment, accidental injury, illness, or, in extreme cases, permanent trauma, disability or death. TPE does not want to frighten its participants or reduce their enthusiasm, but considers it important for them and their families to know in advance what to expect, and to be informed of the activities' inherent risks. The following describes some, but not all, of those risks.

- TPE's programs live, camp and travel out of doors, where they are subject to numerous environmental and other risks. Activities vary from program to program and may be strenuous physically, emotionally, and intellectually. The activities include rehearsing and performing outdoors, camping in tents, cooking over open fires, hiking and backpacking, and swimming.
- Equipment may fail or malfunction, despite reasonable maintenance and use.
- Meals are prepared over gas stoves and open fires. Camping risks and hazards include burns, cuts, slips, falls, diarrhea and flu-like illness.
- Decisions are made by the instructors and participants usually are in an outdoor, sometimes wilderness, setting based on a variety of perceptions and evaluations which, by their nature, are imprecise and subject to errors in judgment. Misjudgments may pertain to, among other things, a participant's capabilities, environment, terrain, water and weather conditions, natural hazards, routes and medical conditions.
- TPE activities are instructional in nature and students will be challenged to expand their skills and judgment.

I have read and understand the general information about TPE and its programs in the TPE literature and/or on the TPE website. The staff of TPE (by phone or email) has been available to more fully explain the nature and physical demands of the activities in which my child will be engaged, and the inherent and other risks of my child's TPE activity.

Acknowledgement and assumption of inherent and other risks:

I understand and acknowledge that the description above (“Activities and risks”) of the inherent risks of TPE’s activities is not complete and that other, including unknown or unanticipated, risks, inherent and otherwise, may result in property loss, injury, illness or death. I acknowledge that my child’s participation in this TPE program is purely voluntary, and I wish for my child to participate in spite of and with knowledge of the inherent and other risks involved. I acknowledge and assume the inherent risks described above and all other inherent risks of my child’s participation in a TPE activity. In addition, except for an injury or other loss which occurs on lands whose rules or regulations prohibit my doing so as a matter of law, I expressly assume ALL risks of my child’s TPE activity, inherent or otherwise, and whether or not described above.

Agreement and release of indemnity:

As the Parent or Legal Guardian of a minor Camper, I agree, on behalf of the minor camper for whom I sign, to the following: I hereby release, hold harmless and agree not to sue TPE, its owners, officers, trustees, agents, employees, and contractors (“Released Parties”), with respect to any and all claims of injury, disability, death, or other loss or damage to person or property suffered by my child for whom I sign, arising in whole or part from my child’s enrollment or participation in an activity of TPE. I agree further to indemnify (“indemnify” meaning to defend, and to pay or reimburse) Released Parties against any claim by a member of my child’s family, a rescuer, co-participant, or any other person, arising in whole or part from an injury or other loss suffered or caused by my child, in connection with an activity of TPE. These agreements of release and indemnity include claims of negligence of a Released Party, but not of gross negligence or intentionally wrongful conduct, and are intended to be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Other provisions:

TPE is authorized to obtain or provide emergency hospitalization, surgical or other medical care for my child. Any such third-party medical care provider is authorized to exchange pertinent medical information with TPE. Costs reasonably associated with medical services, including evacuation, shall be borne by me.

Photo Release:

I hereby allow TPE to use images of myself or my child, whether on film, video, electronic media or other format, for publicity, marketing or any other purpose which TPE deems appropriate.

Health Statement:

This program involves participation in outdoor activities that are, by their nature, physically and mentally demanding. Therefore all participants must be free of medical or physical conditions, which might create undue risk to themselves or to others who depend on them. If there is any doubt whatsoever about your ability to safely participate in this activity, you should have a physical examination by a physician and call the office to discuss if the activity is appropriate for your child. We may require a physician’s consent as a precondition for participation. I declare that my child is in good physical health and believe that he/she is able without reservations or limited conditions to physically withstand and cope with the indicated rigors of this program.

THE PARENT(S) OR GUARDIAN OF A MINOR CAMPER HAVE READ THIS PAGE AND THE PREVIOUS PAGE OF THIS DOCUMENT AND UNDERSTAND AND VOLUNTARILY AGREE TO ITS TERMS, WHICH SHALL BE BINDING UPON THEM, THEIR HEIRS, ESTATE, EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS. THE AGREEMENT MAY BE MODIFIED ONLY IN WRITING.
